

Headline Data Maths

In Maths, 95% of all pupils across the school make expected or above expected progress, with 16% of pupils exceeding their expected progress against CASPA comparative data.

In the Primary department 96% of students achieve expected progress or better, with 27% of students exceeding their expected progress against CASPA comparative data.

In the secondary department 95% of students achieve expected progress or better, with 10% of students exceeding their expected progress against CASPA comparative data.

In the Post 16 department 72% of students achieve expected progress or better, with 49% of students exceeding their expected progress, whereby students are expected to achieve 33% of a level per year.

Maths - Post 16

■ Below expected   ■ Expected   ■ Exceed expected

